

Sunday, May 22, 1983 The Manhattan Mercury D7

Instrumental Day set

By IFAN PAYNE
Music Critic

Tuesday is Instrumental Music Day for USD 383 Elementary Band and Orchestra students.

A variety of bands and orchestras will be performing in concert in Manhattan High School during Tuesday evening, starting at 7:30.

The evening's events will commence with the Beginning Band, which will play a variety of music, from America and When the Saints Go Marching In to The Victors.

This will be followed by the Advanced Band which will offer seven selections including Colonel John, Festival March and America the Beautiful.

The bands will be directed by Larry Norvel and A.R. Thompson.

Both of these bands will be performing in the High School Gymnasium.

The orchestras will then make their contributions in the High School Auditorium under the direction of Linnetta Hill.

The Beginning Orchestra will start out with an old dance song, Stroll Along, and will finish with Beethoven's Ode to Joy. The Advanced Orchestra will follow with music by Bach, Haydn, Schubert, Weber and Brahms.

Assisting the bands and orchestras are Bill Harshbarger, Dona Sidorfsky, Cheryl Parnell and Janice Albright.

With regard to elementary instrumentalists, free instrumental music classes will be held at Manhattan Middle School from June 13 to July 8. These classes are for like instruments and all band and orchestra students are invited to attend.