

Band series continues

By IFAN PAYNE
Music Critic

The Manhattan Municipal Band continues its summer program with the weekly concert in City Park this evening.

Under the direction of Larry Norvell, the band will perform John Klohr's Billboard March; Let Us Break Bread Together arranged by Thomas Root; Don Gillis' January February March; Miranda by Bob Cotter; Knipper's Meadowlands, Cavalry of the Steppes; Tango for Band by Glenn Osser, Big Band Polka arranged by Jerry Nowak and My Hero from Oscar Strauss' operetta, The Chocolate Soldier.

Trumpeter Mike Gaches will be the instrumental soloist for La Virgin De La Macarena and tenor Jerry Langenkamp the soloist for the Flower Song from Bizet's opera Carmen.

Mike Gaches was a music major for three years at KSU and for one year at UCLA. He is currently a student in computer science and electrical engineering at KSU. He has played for a number of years with the KSU Concert Jazz Ensemble.

Dr. Jerry Langenkamp is an associate professor in the KSU Department of Music where he is chairman of the voice department and director of the opera workshop.

FIND OUT THE

"Reason Why"

Behind the city commission decisions
by listening to and participating in....

Commissioner's Comments

1:00 P.M. EVERY FIRST AND THIRD WEDNESDAY

Tuesday, July 19, 1983 The Manhattan Mercury A5