

Band concert slated

By IFAN PAYNE
Music Critic

This week's Municipal Band concert Tuesday in the park pavilion will feature the massed drumming of David Warner, Alan Keithly and Joe Burnett in a performance of Jesse James' The Horse...Drum War.

All three drummers are students of Municipal Band percussionist Bill Warner and are currently attending Manhattan High School.

The vocal soloist will be Jody Brown, organizer of the original Sugar and Spice, and currently a music specialist in the Ft. Riley grade school system.

Other items on the program include, Espiritu Bel Alamo by Andy Clark, John Cacavas' La Bella Roma, Allerseelen by Richard Strauss, Bach's If Thou Be Near, Neil Hefty Portrait arranged by Bob Lowden, Don Gillis' January February March, San Francisco El Grande by Ernesto Lecuona, Hugh Stuart's Lemon Merengue and March Militaire by Saint-Saens.

The band will be directed by Larry Norvell, and the concert starts at 8 p.m.

Monday, July 11, 1983 The Manhattan Mercury A7