

Music offerings varied

By IFAN PAYNE
Music Critic

Here is a brief look at the music events in Manhattan this week.

On Tuesday evening in the band pavilion Larry Norvell will direct the Manhattan Municipal Band.

Musical Arts in the Park continue on Thursday evening with a concert by noted guitarist Joan Griffith. Ms. Griffith is on the staff of the Department of Music at the University of Arkansas and her program will include guitar music of the Renaissance, the Baroque and the Classical eras.

Friday evening is devoted to a local talent show.

The popular Trinidad Tripoli Steel Band will again bring its colorful show to City Park on Saturday evening for what seems to be establishing itself as the annual Caribbean celebration in downtown tropical Manhattan.

All performances start at 8 p.m.

Sunday, June 26, 1983 The Manhattan Mercury D3